- RANDY SORRELS, MANAGING PARTNER

FIRM GOAL: To further enhance firm reputation and maintain strong referral relationships.

Abraham, Watkins, Nichols, Sorrels, Agosto & Aziz is the oldest personal injury firm in Houston, founded in 1951 by just three attorneys working out of a small apartment office. Over the years, the firm has continued to expand and take on more business without losing sight of their top priority – cultivating lasting relationships with clients and other area law firms.

Fast forward to 2005, and Abraham Watkins recognized it was time to reach their customers digitally. Working with a unique combination of both individuals and Fortune 500 businesses meant a sophisticated approach to online marketing was critical to not only stay ahead of the competition, but in front of the most qualified audience. Through a multi-layered digital strategy, the firm partnered with FindLaw to further develop their presence in the personal injury market.

While much has changed in the last seven decades, Abraham Watkins' distinguished reputation in the industry remains steady. Despite growing competition, the firm continues to lead the industry through a targeted, thoughtful and collaborative marketing approach with the help of FindLaw.
